INDOOR

Faye G. Allen Grand Atrium

The Grand Atrium reaches four stories, was originally the Armory's Drill Hall, and is now filled with some of MOHAI's most iconic artifacts, such as the Boeing B-1 mail carrier, the Wawona, and the legendary original Rainier "R". The open floor plan and built-in AV equipment make the space adaptable to any type of function, including performances, ceremonies, galas, product launches and other presentations.

Microsoft Lakefront Pavilion

Located on the north end of the building, the glass-walled Microsoft Lakefront Pavilion delivers stunning views of the Lake and the historic vessels that moor at Lake Union Park.

Norcliffe Foundation Conference Rooms

MOHAI offers two conference rooms with views of Lake Union and the Historic Ship Wharf. The adjacent conference rooms have a removable wall in between them, and can be used separately or as single rooms. Each is equipped with comfortable and stylish conference furniture, projectors, pull-down screens, as well as ample electrical and data ports for all types of media presentations.
